

The Promises of our Lord:

To Those Who Devotedly Pray the Consolation and Adoration Prayers

1. My children, I promise to protect anyone who devotedly consoles and adores Me with this prayer against evil attacks. He will not die a sudden death. He will not be burned by fire.
2. My children, I promise to protect anyone who devotedly consoles and adores Me against the attacks of evil spirits.
3. Any soldier who prays this prayer before entering a battlefield will not be defeated. No bullet will have any effect on him.
4. If this prayer is said to a woman in labor, she will have lesser pains and any woman who devotedly says these prayers will deliver safely.
5. Put this prayer on the head of any child disturbed by evil spirits, My Cherubim will protect him.
6. I promise to protect any family from lightning and thunder effects, and any house where this prayer is will be protected against storms.
7. If this prayer is said to the dying before his death, I promise that his soul will not be lost.
8. Any sinner who consoles and adores Me through this prayer will obtain conversion.
9. I promise to protect them with My Precious Blood and hide them in My Holy Wounds all who console and adore Me. Poison will have no effect on them. I will guard their five senses.
10. I promise to baptize aborted children who are killed daily in the world, and put a deep contrition on the hearts of their parents through the power of My Precious Blood.
11. All who devotedly console and adore Me with this prayer until death will join the heavenly Armies and Choirs. I will give them the Morning Star.
