

Christmas Letter From On High

I have loved you with an everlasting love (Jeremiah 31:3).

Dearly Beloved,

How are you? My peace I give to you. I love every one of My children and long that everyone understands My love for each of you. Each is unique, special, made in My own image. My dearest wish as Your Heavenly Father is that you will be with Me when your earthly pilgrimage is over (1 Timothy 2:4). This is why I sent My only Begotten Son Jesus Christ to be a divine propitiation for the sins of mankind to satisfy My righteous justice. Christmas is a time of great joy. But look at how the world celebrates it. Everything is based on self-seeking enjoyment and material things with little reflection on the profound significance of this event. Even the phrase "Merry Christmas" has been forced to change to "Season Greetings" to satisfy the dictates of political correctness. Beloved, politics will not save you. Do not worry about the opinion of fellow human beings. This is why there is no real joy and peace from their festivities. When will humanity wake up from its stupor? Advent is a time of grace and preparation given to you to look deeply into your soul, to express sincere repentance and to simplify your life in order to commemorate the First Coming of Christ and to strive to live lives befitting children of the Most High.

Beloved, some of you are worried about the future. The world is in an upheaval. Nevertheless, I am in charge in every moment in time. How you respond in the present moment and the daily decisions you make will determine your destiny when this earthly pilgrimage is over. Let the season of Advent be extended over your whole life so that you do not preoccupy yourself in self-seeking but in pleasing Me and obeying My Commandments of love which is the road map to your true home. When you allow Me to be the Lord of your life, fear and anxiety for the future will not have a hold over you. Then you will gain a deeper understanding of My love and My power. Would a loving parent not provide for his child? My divine Providence is in My will for you. If I allow some suffering to visit you, you know that it will be used for the sanctification of your soul and other souls especially those near and dear to you, if you accept it (Romans 8:28). You will not fear death, knowing that I will be there with open arms, welcoming you to My glorious Kingdom where you will receive your lasting crown of glory (2 Timothy 4:7-8). Follow My Son, Jesus Christ (Matthew 17:5). He is the way to Me (John 14:6). Walk in His footsteps. By His life on earth, He shows the way to live and love as befitting children of God. Your glorious eternal inheritance that you cannot imagine awaits you (1 Corinthians 2:9). Work diligently for it. I help you with My mighty graces. Pray to Me, Jesus and Mary for help. Your body is a temple of My Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19). I am very near (Ephesians 4:6). You should not be overcome by any fear. Your hope is indestructible and your eternity is bright. I await to embrace you in your true homecoming in heaven.

God, the Most High

Your Heavenly Father
